

Guido Pennings: full professor of ethics and bioethics at Ghent University (Belgium) where he is also the director of the Bioethics Institute Ghent (BIG). He has published around 250 articles and book chapters mainly on ethical problems associated with medically assisted reproduction and genetics including gamete donation, stem cell research, fertility preservation, and preimplantation genetic diagnosis.

He is also Guest Professor on “Ethics in Reproductive Medicine” at the Faculty of Medicine and Pharmaceutical Sciences of the Free University Brussels, coordinator of the Special Interest Group on Ethics and Law of the European Society of Human Reproduction and Embryology (ESHRE), member of the Ethics Committee of the European Society of Human Reproduction and Embryology (ESHRE), member of the National Advisory Committee on Bioethics and member of the Federal Commission on Scientific Research on Embryos in vitro.